Putnam County Coordinated Transportation Plan
Annual Review 2020

Due to the coronavirus pandemic, the Putnam County Transportation Committee met virtually via Zoom on October 20, 2020 to conduct the annual review of Putnam County's Coordinated Public Transit-Human Services Transportation Plan. Committee members reviewed the plan in its entirety and determined that no changes were needed at this time, beyond agency updates. Once the agency updates were made, the updated plan was sent to committee members on November 9, 2020 via email. At that time, a call for approval of the annual update was requested and the following agency representatives approved the annual update to Putnam County's Coordinated Transportation Plan:

Jodi Warnecke, Putnam County Council on Aging
Bob Kroeger, Putnam County Veterans Service Agency
Beca Sheidler, Area Agency on Aging 3
Erin Rodabaugh-Gallegos, HHWP Community Action Commission
Jennifer Horstman, ADAMHS Board
Scott Lammers, HHWP Community Action Commission
Josh Anderson, HHWP Community Action Commission
Karen Vorst, Mercy Health St. Rita's Ambulatory Care Center
Suzy Wischmeyer, Putnam County Job and Family Services
Denise Early, Putnam County Office of Public Safety
Mike Klear, Putnam County Office of Public Safety
Donna Konst, Pathways Counseling Center
Mike Boaz, Putnam County Board of Developmental Disabilities
Kim Rieman, Putnam County Health Department
Mike Lammers, Putnam County Commissioner
Jason Cox, Hilty Home
